Allen E. Derocher – Administrator

Homeowner ----- FOR YOUR PROTECTION

If you sign the permit application and pay someone else to do the work, you can be responsible for any mistakes they make. You can become liable to pay workman's compensation, social security, unemployment taxes, and be responsible for any injuries that occur on this job if that person is not a licensed contractor. DO NOT SIGN AWAY YOUR PROTECTION. Ask the ones you hire to show you their license.

I understand my responsibility as a homeowner applicant.
